Re: United States v. Savon Bagby, 17 Cr. 505 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

On March 28, 2023, defendant Savon Bagby was presented before the magistrate court on a one-count criminal complaint (see 23 Mag. 2342) and arraigned on an amended violation of supervised release ("VOSR") petition. The Government writes in response to the Court's March 31, 2023 order that the parties submit a letter by April 14, 2023 advising whether a conference or hearing should be scheduled for the VOSR proceeding, or whether the matter should be held in abeyance pending the preliminary hearing date on the new criminal charge. The Government and defense counsel jointly request that the VOSR proceeding be held in abeyance pending the preliminary hearing date on the defendant's criminal charge, as the parties are currently working towards a possible pretrial disposition of the criminal complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
